

Ellipsometer

Description:

- The ellipsometer is a measurement device for the analysis of thin films on polished surfaces in the nanometre range
- The ellipsometer is used for film thickness measurements on hydraulic rods

Available Test Methods:

- Analysis of the oil film generation of rod seals in dependence of the
 - stroking speed
 - operating pressure
 - temperature
 - various material combinations (sealing ring, rod, hydraulic oil)